(4) "Homeowners' association" means an incorporated or unincorporated association owned by or whose members consist primarily of the owners of the property covered by the dedicatory instrument and through which the owners, or the board of directors or similar governing body, manage or regulate the residential subdivision, planned unit development, condominium, horizontal property regime, or similar planned development;

(5) "Local governing body" means the legislative body of a city, municipality, county, or other political subdivision of this state that has authority to enact a zoning ordinance, resolution, regulation, rule, or other requirement of a type regarding land use in its jurisdiction;

(6) "Primary residence" means a property or residential dwelling that is owned by a person who resides at the property or residential dwelling a majority of the days in a twelve-month period;

(7) "Prohibit" means to forbid or ban the operation of a residential amenities sharing unit, either permanently or temporarily, within a local governing body's jurisdiction, portion of the local governing body's jurisdiction, or a portion of an owner's property;

(8) "Property" means a tract of land recorded with the register of deeds office of the county where the property is located and that is not otherwise subject to the Hotel and Public Swimming Pool Inspection Act, compiled in title 68, chapter 14, part 3;

(9) "Residential amenities sharing platform" or "platform" means a company that coordinates residential amenities sharing providers to rent their units to consumers;

(10) "Residential amenities sharing provider" or "provider" means a person engaged in renting a residential amenities sharing unit;

(11) "Residential amenities sharing unit" or "unit" means a property or residential dwelling that:

(A) Is a provider's primary residence;

(B) Is partially rented for a fee for a period of less than fifteen (15) continuous hours;

(C) Is rented for the same purpose and function as used or intended by the property owner; and

(D) Does not provide sleeping accommodations to transients; and

(12) "Restrictive covenant" means a covenant, condition, or restriction contained in a dedicatory instrument, whether mandatory, prohibitive, permissive, or administrative.

66-33-103. Local regulation of residential amenities sharing units.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a local governing body shall not prohibit or effectively prohibit the use of property as a residential amenities sharing unit.

(b)

(1) A local governing body may, by resolution or ordinance, regulate residential amenities sharing providers by:

(A) Requiring a provider to register a unit with the local governing body. The local governing body shall not refuse registration unless the provider fails to comply with a regulation permitted by this subdivision

(b)(1). A local governing body may require a provider to provide the following registration information:

(i) The name, street address, mailing address, email address, and telephone number of the residential amenities sharing unit provider;

(ii) The street address of the residential amenities sharing unit;

(iii) Proof of liability insurance for the unit; and

(iv) Affirmation by the provider that operating the unit as a residential amenities sharing unit does not violate a covenant, condition, restriction, bylaw, or other regulation contained in, or promulgated pursuant to, a dedicatory instrument;

(B) Requiring a provider to pay an annual fee of not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for the registration of each unit;

(I) Requiring a provider to provide proof of written notification to an owner of a property that shares a physical boundary with the residential amenities sharing unit.

(2) This chapter does not prevent a local governing body from prohibiting the continued use of property as a residential amenities sharing unit if, as a direct result of the operation of the residential amenities sharing unit, the unit has been in violation of a generally applicable local law. The burden of proof that a violation of a generally applicable local law was a direct result of the operation of the residential amenities sharing unit is on the local governing body. If a provider has exhausted all appeal rights for a violation of a generally applicable local law, then the local governing body may impose the following penalties:

(A) For a first violation, a prohibition on the use of the property as a residential amenities sharing unit for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days;

(B) For a second violation, a prohibition on the use of the property as a residential amenities sharing unit for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days; and

(C) For a third violation, a permanent prohibition on the use of the property as a residential amenities sharing unit.

(3) A local governing body may maintain a website that lists the address of each residential amenities sharing unit registered within the local governing body's jurisdiction. The website may also provide a mechanism for consumers to file online complaints regarding a provider or unit.
